

Forensic and Expert Social Anthropology: Culturally-Based Land Claims

Tutor: James Rose
20 February 2024
8 x 1 hour classes

An introduction to concepts and methods involved in the forensic investigation into, and provision of expert opinion on, culturally-based tenure claims to lands, waters and/or natural resources.

This is a Continuous Professional Development course aimed at anthropologists, professionals working in law, community development and humanitarian aid, students and graduates of anthropology, law, cultural heritage and related fields, as well as interested members of the public.

For more info: www.therai.org.uk/online-courses

Syllabus:

- 1 Identifying communities of culturally-defined land owners
- 2 Identifying appropriate idea systems for land tenure modelling
- 3 Linking culturally-defined communities to areas of land
- 4 Modelling and analysing culturally-defined communities
- 5 Modelling and analysing land areas
- 6 Integrating models of community and models of land
- 7 Participatory Mapping in Land Claims
- 6 International Examples of National-Level Land Claim Processes

Dr James Rose

is a Senior Research Fellow with the Melbourne School of Population and Global Health, Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry and Health Sciences at the University of Melbourne.

He specialises in forensic and expert social anthropology, data governance and geographic information systems, with a methodological focus on network-based population dynamics and social and kinship network analysis.

